

GEO Study Abroad Course Equivalency Form

Instructions for Students

Please complete this form if the following apply to your case:

- You are participating in s GEO-sponsored program that is either a university exchange program, a direct enrollment program, or a third party program like IE3 Global, SIT, CIEE, or DIS.
- The course you are taking abroad is not listed in the course equivalency database at: <https://registrar.uoregon.edu/study-abroad-course-equivalencies> and therefore has not yet been evaluated and approved by a UO department.

In order to have your course evaluated:

1. Submit the syllabus of the course to the relevant academic department. For instance, for a Political Science course, reach out to the UO Political Science department (undergraduate coordinator, faculty, departmental staff, etc) to learn who should be receiving the syllabus for evaluation.
2. If the syllabus is not in English, it is the student's responsibility to translate the syllabus before evaluation can take place. The only exception for this is language departments that are evaluating courses taught in that language and academic discipline. For instance, a Japanese literature course taken at Waseda University does not need to be translated in order for the UO Japanese department to evaluate the syllabus.

Instructions for Department

- This form should be completed by the appropriate course evaluator in the respective department (e.g. undergraduate coordinator, designated faculty, etc).
- To submit this form, please send it as an attachment to the Registrar's Office to sareg@uoregon.edu and copy geoinfo@uoregon.edu.
